Re: United States v. Gilmar Padilla
Crim. No. 04-MJ-01751-CBS

Dear Mr. Picozzi:

Confirming our telephone conversation of yesterday, I spoke with Deputy Clerk Roland regarding this matter.

She agreed with your assessment of matters that as Ms. Padilla is released on personal recognizance her only obligation is to attend court proceedings as required and that she may travel outside of the district without leave of court.

In this vein, as a courtesy, I enclose a copy of Ms. Padilla's itinerary for the period August 19, 2004 – September 6, 2004.

Thank you.

Very truly yours,

George F. Gormley

Re: Permission to travel

Dear Mr. Gormley,

I am writing this letter to obtain permission to travel to the District of Florida. I will be traveling with my daughter Angelee Santos on August 19, 2004 thru September 6, 2004. I will be visiting with my grandmother Celia Medina at 15330 NW 30 Court, Opa-Locka, FL 33054. The telephone number there is (305)681-2238. From August 30 thru September 1 I will be taking my daughter to Disney World. There I will be visting with a friend of mine Johany Maysonet at 6606 Yucatan Drive, Orlando, FL 32807. The telephone number there is (407)384-0167.

If any questions or problems you may contact me at the above address or telephone number.

Very truly yours,
